

Player Profile No1: John Maunders

Personal

Name: John Maunders

Middle name: Kenneth

Nickname:

Place of birth: Ashford , Middlesex

Age: 30

Occupation: Cricket Coach, Maunders Cricket

Cricket

Batsman / Bowler (style): left hand bat, off spin

Representative honours: England U19's . Middlesex, Leicestershire and Essex

Highest score: 180 v Gloucestershire CCC

Best bowling: 4 – 16 v Worcestershire CCC

Favourite ground (apart from Sunbury): New Road (Worcestershire CCC)

Least favourite ground :

Personal Sunbury highlight: 100 in Evening Standard Final v Ealing

Personal Sunbury low point: Losing Evening Standard final v Ealing

Best player played with and against:

With: Virender Sehwag

Against: Shane Warne

Best moment in cricket: Debut 1st Class hundred v Surrey (171). Winning County Championship With Essex CCC 2009

Worst moment in cricket: Bagging a pair v Nottinghamshire, dropping 3 catches in an innings

Best comment heard on a cricket pitch: Too rude to put on website, but a certain D C Nash was behind the stumps at the time !

Funniest moment in cricket (not on the pitch) 1.Ottis Gibson holding T20 trophy above his head in front of a full house only to have his shorts pulled down by one of the players behind him, no jock strap ! 2. attempting to walk the wall with ORJ after a devastating win v Reigate Priory only to lose balance and find myself wedged in a rose bush 6ft up ! (not funny at the time)

Favourite player in world cricket: Virender Sehwag

Who had the greatest influence on your career: Parents

Cricketing ambition for 20011: Win Surrey Championship

Your song for when you bat in 20/20:

Other sports played: Football, Hockey, Squash

Sporting hero (outside cricket): Tony McCoy

Favourite food: American hot pizza

Favourite musician/band:

Favourite movie: The Untouchables

Favourite holiday destination: Barbados

Team Mates

Best trainer: Justin Granger

Biggest mouth: As above

Biggest practical joker: All have our moments, Stanier and Nash I would say

Least likely to walk: Me

Most likely to throw the toys See top answer

Fastest/Slowest between the wickets: London is pretty quick. Todd is not as quick

The person you least like facing in the nets: Nash leg spin

Worst timekeeper: